Introduction:

“Niswarth seva sankalp trust” established in 2021 by an eminent socialist Mrs. Shakuntala devi and her son, who are actively involved in social service from more than 10 years. By inspiring their own journey of life, NSST has been founded with some core social issues related to health, education, sanitation, old age orphan parents, child labour and women empowerment

NSST imagination is to see the nation in new frame. When there would no child die because lack of treatment, no one crushes their dreams to get a quality education, not a single mother loses their child because of scarcity and money. With this extraordinary dream we started our journey from a very basic level and giving our level hard to serve the society.

KEY OBJECTIVES:

NSST dedicatedly working for the children health and education. In context of health we are providing medical assistance to those who are suffering from fatal or life threatening disease e.g. cancer, thalassemia, hole in heart etc.

We are also supporting those parents who are thrown away by their children like a garbage in old age as well as those struggling with seniority and old age.

NSST also providing stitching, weaving, knitting training to girls and women so that they can overcome from domestic violence and could be competent to earn livelihood.

NSST have rehabilitation center in Delhi, where more than 20 blind children lives, we are taking care of them allround and assist them in their education, food groceries, stationaries etc.
